009TH District

29 Dec 14

TO: District Commander
009th District

FROM: Sgt. Thomas Bailey #1618
009th District

SUBJECT: Complaint Register Number Initiation Report
Log # 1073143

Complainant:

Accused Member: Unknown male

Allegation: Failed to provide a Police Report

Location:

Date and Time: 29 December 2014 / 1248 hrs.

Medical Treatment: Refused

Notification: IMPRA Inv. Lukas #117 @1826 hrs.
9th District DSS Sgt. De van #1589 @1832 hrs.

Summary: R/Sgt spoke to the complainant at approximately 1630 hrs, the complainant stated on today's date at 1230 hrs. She had an argument with her cousin who became mad and hit her with a black gun a "Mac 11" or "Chopper" on the right and left side of her head. R/Sgt asked the complainant to move her hat so he could see if she sustained any injuries that would require immediate medical attention. At this time R/Sgt. was unable to see any injury and the complainant refused any medical attention. Complainant stated to R/Sgt that she called the police about her cousin with the gun and gave the address of [REDACTED] and called 911 again with the correct address of [REDACTED] (Event history Table). Complainant stated to R/Sgt that she opened the door for the police and stepped outside to "quell the commotion". The Complainant stated the Officers were in the home for approximately 7-10 minutes. At this time the Officer exited the home and left. Complainant stated that she went to the 002nd district to obtain a report for Domestic Battery. Complainant stated in the report that the cousin struck her with a closed fist, not a weapon, and then pulled a gun out on her. R/Sgt inquired if she could describe the officers, complainant could only remember the Officer was a male. R/Sgt, through his initiation report, has discovered several discrepancies in the complainant version of events that took place.
